"I was in Pete's cooking class. Everyday when I walked into the room Pete would always be smiling. He is always in a positive mood and I don't think I have ever seen a frown on his face. He isn't just a teacher but he is someone that students look up to and come to for advice. North Andover High will truly miss him!"

-Kassandra Carrasquillo '17

When I think of Pete Concannon the first thing that comes to mind is the phrase "I'm at your service". I've heard him share that phrase hundreds of times. He's said it to students, staff, parents and to me. The beautiful thing that is so very special about Pete is that he truly means those words. Pete unconditionally cares about students, families and teachers. He is the colleague you want in the room with you as you work on any tough dilemma or challenge. He is the peer you seek out when you are frustrated or confused. Pete uses his experience and knowledge to bring positive suggestions and insight on a consistent basis. As I have personally matured, progressed and advanced during my tenure at NAHS, Pete has been a great mentor and role model. He is a man of great integrity and passion for learning. Pete has an amazing skill of redirecting a conversation to the correct focus. That focus usually being the students. I will always remember him as a champion for the students and what is best for their lives. I'm honored to have had the opportunity to have met him and worked with him. I wish him nothing but happiness during the next chapter of his life.

-Chet Jackson

"Pete is always there to give students great advice when they are stuck in situations where they do not know what to do. He is always willing to help students out when they are stuck on something. He always knows the right thing to say to cheer people up and put a smile on their face. To be honest I could write a whole book about Pete and how he has influenced his students."

-Tanner Masucci '17

Pete Concannon:

Pete Concannon is one of the most influential people in my development as a person and educator. A man with strength of character, integrity and a passionate commitment to cultivating the gifts of others, I do not believe it is an overstatement to say that Pete's mentoring has largely shaped a generation of North Andover students and professionals. As a young counselor, I was fortunate enough to work along side Pete, watching him cultivate relationships and foster growth in those around him. In the twenty years that have followed, Pete has guided the development of many of North Andover's most remarkable individuals. Modeling our work after Pete, many of us have gone on to continue his legacy and his impact is exponential...it will continue without end. In all that I do as a person and professional, I strive to emulate Pete. I cultivate the relationship, I see the strength in others, and I never go it alone.

Some may not know of Pete's other remarkable talents as a celebrated artist. From fashioning clocks out of shells, to his award winning paintings, Pete is as dynamic an artist as he is an educator. So, while I am sad to think of a time that I cannot seek out wise council from my mentor, I smile to know that his brush has colored who I am and his painting is the illustration of a community I am humbled to call my own.

-Kelly Driscoll

Pete Concannon has been one of the most influential men in my life and the lives of so many others who attended or worked at North Andover High School. There is no one who is more genuine and compassionate. Pete has a gift for developing relationships and earning the trust of everyone around him. Caring for others comes innately to Pete, it's just who he is. I was fortunate to serve as a teacher's assistant in the Focus Program (under Pete) in my first year in education. I learned more in that first year with Pete than I had in any other year in my life. I will forever admire the way he talks to students and treats everyone with respect. I am eternally grateful for the opportunity to work with the best in the business for that last 18 years - thank you Pete!

-Steve Nugent

Jan exemplifies every quality of a wonderful teacher, mentor, colleague, and friend. Her dedication to NAPS has made a positive and lasting impact on so many students over the past twenty years. She is compassionate, caring, and thoughtful. Jan consistently puts the needs of her students first. She will be greatly missed! Wishing Jan the very best as she starts a new chapter in her life of traveling often and visiting with family and friends!

-Kerry Lynne Perry

Mrs. Micklo was awesome. I loved being in her class. She made learning fun!
-Aimee Gregoire

Jan has been my friend, my colleague and my daughter's teacher. Her passion for her students along with her expertise, knowledge, ability to address all of her children's needs and sensitivity to combine to make her one of the finest teachers North Andover High School has ever known. At times when I needed advice, Jan listened, cared and gave me valuable information. Moreover, she always put her profession ahead of everything else in her life and gave each of her students her utmost attention. My daughter received an excellent education during the four years she was in Jan's class, and I credit Jan with Aimee's success as an adult adjusting to the outside world.

As a colleague, I admired Jan's professionalism, dedication to her work and welcoming nature. Wherever, whenever Jan was, she gave her all, remained positive at all times and created and maintained a very strong, cohesive culture within her classroom, her department and the school.

As a friend, Jan is a wonderful support and a true listener who gives honest advice in a kind manner. If anyone needs anything, Jan is there. She is trustworthy, faithful and strong. I feel blessed to have Jan Micklo in my life and the life of my daughter. She has made an enormous impact.

-Special Education Department

When I joined the NAHS team 6 years ago, I would have been lost without Jan Micklo. My new role was something that was quite different than anything I was used to. Jan took me under her wing and mentored me every step of the way that first year. Even today I look to her still as a mentor and admire her patience, her kindness and the way she empowers her students to reach their fullest potential. As a colleague and as a friend, I will miss Jan terribly next year, but at the same time am so happy for her as she starts her next adventure. I know that she has many new endeavors ahead and many more lives to touch. I look forward to watching her story with great anticipation.

-William Arthur Ward

"I have come to believe that a great teacher is a great artist and that there are as few as there are any other great artists. It might even be the greatest of the arts since the medium is the human mind and spirit."

A Letter From the Editors

For most, the last day of school means freedom; to us editors it's quite the opposite. While our friends headed off to Salisbury and Plum Island, the eight of us were trapped in room 3005. Still, we wouldn't have it any other way. This is where our journey began. We buried our resentments and got down to work.

None of us were sure how we could portray our past 720 days of high school in 212 pages. We bounced ideas back and forth on how best to represent ourselves but nothing stuck. The only certain was we didn't want the book to be corny. All we wanted was a book that let the memories shine through. We really didn't think a symbol or theme could capture our class in the way we wanted. So when Mrs. Wolf asked us "What's your theme?" we told her we didn't want one.

We explained why this book has no theme and she understood. This is the first year The Knight has been without an official theme. The eight of us believe that the class of 2017 cannot be defined by song lyrics with the word "knight", tree metaphors, or Apple products. We are unique. Our theme is us.

We wanted to focus on showcasing our class and our years throughout the book. We believed that a theme would take away the focus from our class. Black and red is featured throughout the book to showcase our knight pride and highlight the pictures we selected to publish. The lines and rectangles in the book are purely aesthetic. We standby our goal to focus on our class and the memories we have shared together. This book embodies the spirit of our class: unprecedented, bright, and lasting.

In reality, the thanks are endless. We are so grateful for all who have contributed in creating this book. We cannot express how appreciative we are for Tom Keeley and the rest of the Jostens team. Thank you Prestige Portraits for perfectly capturing our memories. Thank you to our junior editors Maria, Katie, and Jess for your hard work and enthusiasm. Good luck next year! To Maria Kachulis-Moriarty, thank you for creating and leading the yearbook committee, and aiding the editor staff with all of our needs. We couldn't have done it without you and the yearbook committee. To Mrs. Wolf and Ms. Bradbury, none of this would be possible without your advising. This book couldn't have existed if we didn't have you both. Thank you for keeping us on our toes and reminding us of what we needed to do and when we needed to do it. We couldn't have asked for better advisors. We will miss you both so much next year! There are no words to describe how grateful we are for your support and guidance.

To the class of 2017, as we enter a new chapter we preserve our memories in the pages of this book. As we walk through the halls for the last time, we are shaped by our experiences shared with one another. We leave each other for new opportunities but realize our memories of each other will always remain. This book will help you be reminded of our time here. We hope you will reconnect and remember what we have shared together. Congratulations to the class of 2017!

Sincerely,

Kate Burba, Lilly Voke, Alexis Cacace, Emma Callamaro, Olivia Lopez, Megan Lucy, Olivia Pino, & Maria Villalba

jv lax w/Moriarty, 2013 Christmas break, chipotle, what the shyt, cedardale, wlydoka the twurt, bubbles, horhey! One day you'll be taking your last school test and you'll have your last fire drill and report card. One day your last fire drill and report card. One day you'll have your last young and wild Friday night with the people you've made a million memories with. One day you'll close your locker and walk out of those doors for the last time. One day you'll be standing in alphabetically ordered line in a cap and gown with people who you watched grow up. People who watched you grow up. A lot of those people you'll never see or hear of ever again. One day you'll forget about all the people you knew and you'll barley remember the memories until you find a picture that makes you think of one. One day you'll be packing up eighteen years of your life into boxes and hugging your parents Goodbye.
